

Executive Lifestyle

The Lake Norman region provides an ideal lifestyle for today's well-traveled executive. Only minutes from Charlotte Douglas International Airport, with over 635 daily departures and non-stop service to over 125 destinations, you have direct access to the world for business and pleasure.

At home on the water's edge, live and work in a relaxed and professional setting. Enjoy boating, sailing, swimming or fishing in your own backyard or test your skill at one of our golf or country clubs. Recreational and cultural amenities around the lake and in nearby Charlotte enrich your well-deserved time off. The beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains are an hour west while North Carolina's famed beaches are four hours east.

Executive housing around the lake is diverse and abundant. Fine custom-built homes are on the lake, on the fairway and nestled into the woods. Or buy a lot in an upscale neighborhood and build your own dream.

Great access, executive amenities and a home you will enjoy coming back to make Lake Norman the perfect place for today's executive.
